

Dreams and Creative Imagination with
Carolyn Conger, PhD
April 15-18, 2010
Scottsdale, Arizona
For more information contact:
The Institute for Inner Growth
Kent Rossman
&
Barbara Rossman
Phone: 480-991-6320

We all hope for the flame of inspiration that comes in dreams and creative expression, seemingly out of nowhere. In this workshop we will learn to open that part of ourselves which knows how to birth a new relationship to work, to people, to Spirit, and to life itself.

The work is primarily experiential. In this workshop, we will use dream work, intuitive training, meditation, visualization, and psychological process. Come further your psycho-spiritual journey. When spirit and matter meet in a burst of creative energy, the final distillation can be the actualized Self.

PLACE: Scottsdale, Arizona, in a private home.

TIME: Thursday evening, April 15th at 7:00pm. It ends at noon on Sunday, April 18th.

COST: $500. Registration is limited. Deposit fee is $50, with balance due on March 1, 2010.

BRING: A notebook, pen, laptop, casual clothes, an open mind and a willingness to explore!

CONTACT: For registration and lodging info, please email: watercolors@cox.net or phone Barbara Rossman at 480-991-6320.

CAROLYN CONGER, PhD, is a consultant and teacher who specializes in developing intuition, creativity, and psycho-spiritual awareness. She has lived with indigenous tribes throughout the world, studying their healing and metaphysical arts. From her research in psycho-immunology and human energy fields, she also teaches mind/body techniques for optimum health. Her doctorate is in clinical psychology.

CONGER SEMINARS

Mailing Address:

2118 Wilshire Blvd. #935
Santa Monica, CA 90403

Office Phone:

310-453-0376

Email:

office@carolynconger.com

Website:

www.carolynconger.com